HARD ON THE JUDGE.-The Chicago Evening Journal says editorially: In the general approval that is bestowed on Sheriff Matson for prohibiting the proposed scandalous jail marriage of the anarchist Spies and Miss Van Zandt it appears to have been forgotten that one of the judges holding a court of record in Chicago is said to have agreed to perform the immoral and indecent marriage ceremony. It has been repeatedly reported in the city press, and not denied, that Judge Prendergast had consented to bestow his judicial sanction on the agreement between Spies, the condemned anarchist, and the demented girl who had determined to marry him. The moral public opinion of Chicago would have been glad to hear a denial from Judge Prendergast of this rumor, but have not had that satisfactory. faction. By his silence he apparently admits the correctness of the report. There mits the correctness of the report. There is nothing about this entire scandal and indecency more scandalous and indecent than the fact, if it is a fact, and it appears to be, that the county judge of Cook county had agreed to become a leading actor in the principal disgraceful scene. It it is true that Judge Prendergast had agreed to judicially give this half crazy girl to the lustful arms of the condemned anarchist and murderer, and to consign her to a life of sorrow and shame, there is no condemnation which he does not merit. Every decent, moral sense of the community was as greatly shocked when the reports of the proposed jail marriage were confimed, as it would have been if the girl victim of a horrible mania had, with unusual estentation, under circumwith unusual estentation, under circum-stances of peculiar immorality, given herself to a public career of vice and infamy. The possibility that the proposed union might bear fruit—and such fruit as the union of ghastly crime in the husband and evident dementia in the bride would have produced —was regarded as inseparable from the consummation of the ceremony. If it is true that Judge Prendergast was to have per-formed this marriage ceremony, he is guilty of a criminal intent to bind judicially thi bargain of lewdness and lunacy, with all it attending circumstances and possible result the record as it stands. HORRIELE DEED .- A horrible murder was committed at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday morning between 7 and 8 o'clock. Yaclob Cabalek is a well to do carpenter, living on Independence street, near the city limits. He has had employment all winter and his oldest son has worked with him. Yesterday morning he and his son went to work shortly before 7 o'clock. The mother, Antoinette, had been out of temper at the breakfast table and had refused to talk to her husband. Directly after breakfast she sent Henry, her 15 year old son, to a gro-cery near by, and still another son to a milk depot, but when they returned they could not get into the house. Going into the back yard they saw James, 13 years old, in the water closet bleeding from sixteen wounds in his left side. They hastened away and called their older brother, who had gone off with the father, and returning the three boys forced an entrance to the house. They discovered Tony, an 8 yearold girl, bleeding from a dozen cuts in her left side. On the floor near by were Mamie, 5 years old; Antoinette, 3 years old, and Willie, 3 months, all dead from dreadful stabs near the heart. A bloody pair of sheers told the story. A hunt was made for the mother. She was found in the celler hanging from a rafter, dead. She had killed her three children, mortally injured two others, and had then destroyed herself. No cause for the terrible deed is given. The husband does not think that his wife was insane. The two injured children, James and Antoinette, were removed to the city hospital, where the doctors say they will surely die. Each was stabbed thirteen times. The shears were nine inches long. Cabalek was a drunken fellow, although he worked and, with his son, earned $75 a EMPEROR WILLIAM yesterday received a committee from the upper house of the Lantag, and repeatedly thanked them for their loyal and patriotic assurances. He said: "You may repeat publicly throughout the country that I was deeply grieved by the vote of the Reichstag on the army bill, but you have filled my heart with balm. We had shown the necessity for our demands, and did not expect refusal, because the new measure tended to diminish the danger of war." The North German Gazette, Prince war." The North German Gazette, Prince Bismarck's organ, speaking of the organization of the Red Cross Society, says the army may speedily demand its help. The same journal, referring to the report that France is about to erect wooden barracks on the frontier, states that it is undeniable that France is collecting on the frontier more troops than the fortress and garrisons are able to shelter. The National Zeitung reaffirms the statement that an order forreaffirms the statement that an order for-bidding the exportation of horses will shortMEDICINAL.

Waterbury Watch and Chain.

The present is given to every cash PURCHASER OF GOODS AMOUNTING TO $12 AND ABOVE; not a watch for every twelve dollars bought; that we could not afford; but with every purchase exceeding this limit, whether it be fifteen or fifty dollars. The cost of the watches is but a small percentage on the average amount of the sales, hence the advertisement is less expensive to us than at first might appear.

It will be a pleasure to make so many boys happy, and a "WA-TERBURY" is not beneath the notice of any man not possessed of a time-piece. They are first-rate watches. If our prices seem high after you have bought an article, you know there is no difficulty about having your money refunded upon return of the article uninjured. That's our way of guaranteeing our prices to be as low as those asked anywhere for goods of equal merit.
